Traditional existing international tax rules leave significant challenges with respect to taxation of the digital economy. While this issue was addressed in Action Point 1 of the OECD 2015 BEPS report, agreeing on and implementing the same standardised tax measures in the EU and the OECD has proven difficult for a number of reasons, and various unilateral national measures are emerging, which complicate the area even further. The panel will review current developments and consider and assess the national measures which have been, or are being, put in place, and will consider what advice practitioners can give to clients involved in the digital economy despite the current environment of widespread uncertainty, taking into account both tax (including VAT) and practical issues.
This panel will consider current trends in relation to pre-M&A reorganisations, such as carving out a business division which is not part of a transaction, allocating liabilities to the seller that shall be retained, or preparing a company for its initial public offering of shares. It is also intended to discuss the current trends in M&A transactions to implement a consolidation of different businesses via share for share exchange. Finally, in the context of cross-border M&A transactions, the panel will cover the strategies used to migrate the holding company and top management of the company to another jurisdiction in which the business will be consolidated, with the relevant tax aspects affecting the strategies.

1330 – 1430 Lunch

1430 – 1600
Mandatory disclosure of tax planning structures and rulings – how transparent should one be?
- Disclosure of cross-border tax planning structures
- EU Mandatory Disclosure Directive
- Unilateral mandatory disclosure rules
- OECD mandatory disclosure rules for Common Reporting
  Standard avoidance arrangements and opaque structures
- Exchange of tax rulings and Advanced Pricing Agreements
- Naming and shaming regulations
- Taxpayers rights, privacy and protection of trade secrets

This panel will discuss the different disclosure rules for cross-border tax planning structures and how they compare, in particular the EU Mandatory Disclosure Directive and unilateral mandatory disclosure rules that countries such as the UK, Ireland and Portugal have introduced. The panel will also cover the mandatory disclosure rules for CRS avoidance arrangements and opaque structures that the OECD has introduced this year. The panel will give an update on the exchange of tax rulings and APAs and on the naming and shaming regulations and practice by the tax authorities. All these disclosure and exchange of information procedures conflict with the taxpayers’ rights such as privacy and protection of trade secrets. The panel will discuss case studies in the context of these topics.

This panel will cover the latest developments in wealth structuring and international tax issues for wealthy individuals and privately-owned business. This will include a discussion on current trends in cross-border investments for private clients and their taxation. We will also compare different approaches to dynastic planning, including how different entities and structures are treated in different jurisdictions. In particular, the panel will cover the new anti-avoidance provisions in the form of the principle purpose test as the minimum standard under the Multilateral Convention, the general anti-abuse rule of both Anti-Tax Avoidance Directive 1 and 2, the role of the principle of economic substance and the boundaries set by recent ECJ cases and by the general principles of international law. Provided you have cancelled your registration to attend an IBA conference in accordance with the terms of the ‘cancellation of registration’ clause included in the ‘Information’ section of the relevant conference programme, you must then confirm to us in writing the IBA office as soon as possible, but in no event later than one year (12 calendar months) from the date of any such conference, all necessary details to enable any reimbursement owed to you to be paid. We regret that no refunds will be made after the date that is one year (12 calendar months) after the date of the relevant conference.

Travel arrangements and visas

Participants are responsible for making their own travel arrangements. It is recommended that you check your visa requirements with your local embassy or consulate. We are unable to dispatch visa invitation letters to support your visa application prior to receipt of your registration form and full payment of registration fees.

Please apply for your visa in good time.

Conference sell-outs

The IBA places its conferences in venues of a suitable size for each event; however, there are times when our conferences may sell out. Should this happen, prospective delegates will be informed and a waiting list will operate. The waiting list will function on a ‘first come, first served’ basis, subject to receiving registered delegate cancellations. The IBA will not be liable for any travel or accommodation expenses incurred by an individual who travels to a conference without a confirmed place at the event.

If cancellation is received in writing at the IBA office by 2 November 2018, fees will be refunded less a 25 per cent administration charge. Refunds will be made minus any monies owed to the IBA.

We regret that no refunds can be made after this date. Registrations or social function bookings received after 2 November will not be eligible for any refund of fees. Please note that NO exception will be made to this policy. Should you have difficulties in obtaining your visa and are not able to attend the Conference this cancellation policy will still apply.

Unauthorized accommodation agents

It has been brought to our attention that there are multiple companies contacting past attendees, claiming to represent the IBA, offering ‘assistance’ with registration and hotel bookings. They are operating by cold-calling and spamming companies whose names have appeared on previous List of Participants, Programmes and Sponsorship recognition. The only Accommodation Agent the IBA works with is Judy Lane ICS. Judy Lane ICS do not contact delegates on behalf of the IBA without delegates making initial contact. Please ignore any communication that does not come directly from the IBA or Judy Lane ICS.

International Bar Association
the global voice of the legal profession

The International Bar Association (IBA), established in 1947, is the world’s leading organisation of international legal practitioners, bar associations, law firms and law societies.

The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession throughout the world. It has a membership of more than 80,000 individual lawyers and more than 190 bar associations and law societies spanning over 170 countries.

Inspired by the vision of the United Nations, the IBA was founded in the same spirit, just before the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was proclaimed in 1948.

The IBA covers all practice areas and professional interests, providing members with access to leading experts and up-to-date information, enabling them to better represent their clients’ interests.

Through its various committees, fora and task forces, the IBA facilitates the exchange of information and views among its members as to laws, practices and professional responsibilities relating to the practice of law around the globe.

IBA Taxes Committee overview

The IBA’s widely respected and very active Taxes Committee offers its members access to the highest quality technical, practical and professional tax expertise to assist in understanding and finding solutions to international tax issues and concerns. It also encourages interface between international tax specialists and promotes the building of networks among tax lawyers worldwide to assist them in better serving the interests of their clients. The Committee is divided informally into four practice group areas: Income Taxes, Other Taxes, Tax Litigation and Employee Benefits.

Members are encouraged to contribute to committee publications which are published throughout the year and to present papers at committee conferences and seminars. The committee also offers tax executives a forum, in its Tax Executives group, to exchange expertise and skills with their colleagues in industry on topics of special interest.
